FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Relaunching of the European-American Chamber of Commerce in the United States

New York, May 12, 2009: The European-American Chamber of Commerce in the United States (EACC US) announced today that it had elected a new Board of Directors and new officers to lead the Chamber through the next stage of its growth and development.

"The transatlantic business partnership faces bigger opportunities and challenges than ever," commented Serge Bellanger, Chairman of the EACC and President of the French-American Chamber of Commerce.

"Collectively, we represent the overwhelming majority of the largest and most influential American and European multinationals, as well as thousands of middle-market companies.

"We are uniquely well-positioned both to advance transatlantic business and to provide an unrivaled business network for all our member companies. Moreover, we will be arranging a number of programs over the coming months to provide all these companies with networking and other business development opportunities."

The other new officers of the European-American Chamber of Commerce are Dr Benno Bunse (President of the German-American Chamber of Commerce) as President; Richard Fursland (CEO, BritishAmerican Business and CEO, British-American Business Council) as Vice President; Cesaltine Gregorio (President of the Portugal-US Chamber of Commerce) as Vice President; Stephen Dreyfuss (Vice President of the French-American Chamber of Commerce) as Secretary and Treasurer.

The European-American Chamber of Commerce is a 'Chamber of Chambers; consisting of: the Belgian-American Chamber of Commerce; the British-American Business; the Danish-American Chamber of Commerce; the French-American Chamber of Commerce; the Finnish-American Chamber of Commerce; the German-American Chamber of Commerce; the Hellenic-American Chamber of Commerce; the Ireland Chamber of Commerce in the United States; the Italy-America Chamber of Commerce; the Luxembourg-American Chamber of Commerce; the Portugal-U.S. Chamber of Commerce; the Romanian-American Chamber of Commerce; the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce; the Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce; the Swiss-American Chamber of Commerce; the US-Austrian Chamber of Commerce.
